Facts and Figures about JICA

1. What is JICA?

Since joining the Colombo plan in 1954, Japan has been providing financial and technical assistance to developing countries through ODA (Official Development Assistance).

JICA is the "one stop shop of Japan's bilateral ODA", providing Technical Cooperation, ODA Loans (Concessional Loans) and Grant Aid.

JICA has a network of more than 90 overseas offices.

In Mozambique, JICA opened office in 2003.

What is TICAD?

TICAD means "Tokyo International Conference on African Development". TICAD became the largest global structure for Asia and Africa to cooperate in promoting the development of Africa. The first Tokyo Conference was held in 1993, marking the beginning of a continuous process of support to Africa and to build consensus around development priorities of Africa. This process was reinforced with a second Tokyo Conference, in 1998.

The 6th Edition of Tokyo International Conference for African Development (TICAD 6) will take place from the 27th to 28th of August 2016 in Nairobi, Kenya, which will be the first African country to host this meeting.

MENU

Technical cooperation

For human resources development and formulation of administrative systems and master plans, technical cooperation involves dispatch of experts, provision of necessary equipment and training of Mozambican personnel in Japan and other countries such as Brazil. Projects can be tailored to address a broad range of issues.

ODA loans (concessionary loans)

ODA loans support developing countries by providing low-interest, long-term and concessional funds (in Japanese yen) to finance their development projects. ODA loans are mainly used for large-scale infrastructure development projects.

Nacala Port Rehabilitation

Grant aid

Grant aid is the provision of funds without the obligation of repayment. Grant aid is used for improving basic infrastructure such as schools, hospitals, water-supply facilities and roads, along with provision of necessary equipment.
